

Prepare or Approve Account Certification Overview

This Quick Reference Guide (QRG) is designed to walk an Account Certification Preparer and Approver through the steps for account certification in Workday. The purpose of the account certification process is to verify that account owners (preparers and approvers) have reviewed reconciliations for all account balances under their authority and have ensure adjustments have been made where issues have been found. By the end of this QRG, users will be able to successfully review and mark variances while you prepare or approve the ledger accounts in Workday that they want to certify. For frequently asked questions regarding Account Certifications, please refer to the Account Certification FAQ & the Resources page.

Once you have gone through all the lines in that Account Certification, you can total the amount certifying in each Ledger Account and enter it into the Account Certification form. Then, you can total the amount of variance in each Ledger Account as a check.

 NOTE	Please Note: This is a best practice to use when reviewing multiple lines for account certifications. The FST Project Team is currently working with the reporting team to explore creating a new detailed report that would help with those that are reconciling a large number of lines.
