Procedure: Attaching Documentation to Supplier Invoices less than $10,000

For supplier invoices less than $10,000 you will not receive an approval notification. However, documentation, such as packing slips, can still be attached to the supplier invoice. This can be done for document record keeping, tracking, and audit purposes.

This procedure can also be followed for supplier invoices over $10,000 to which you wish to add documentation outside of the supplier invoice approval process.

You must first find the desired supplier invoice.

If you know the supplier invoice number, you can enter the number into the Search bar and select.

or

On the Workday Home screen:

1. Type “Find Supplier Invoices” into the Search bar to access the Find Supplier Invoices report.

On the Find Supplier Invoice screen:

2. Narrow your search. This will most easily be done through entering the Purchase Order number.

On the second Find Supplier Invoice screen:

3. Hover on the magnifying glass next to the appropriate supplier invoice number and click on the three dot Related Actions button.
4. Under Actions, hover over Supplier Invoices, and click on Add Attachment.

On the second Add Attachment for Supplier Invoice screen:

5. Upload your documentation and click OK.

You have successfully completed this task.

Procedure: Attaching Documentation to Supplier Invoices from Account Certification

This procedure starts with an Account Certification already opened. If you are unsure how to get to the Review Account Certification screen where this procedure starts, The Prepare or Approve Account Certification Quick Reference Guide, steps 1-8, walk you through how to get to the Account Certification screen and how to filter to see activity.

 NOTE	The Account Certification will only be available after month-end close for the month that the Supplier Invoice was created. If you want to attach the documentation to the Supplier Invoice before the Account Certification has been created, you will have to follow one of the procedures mentioned above. You will NOT have access to attach documentation after the Account Certification has been submitted.
