What’s the latest news?

Cutover Resources: May-July will be busy as preparations are made to cease transactions in Oracle and move over to Workday Financials. While this period is called "cutover," it isn't as simple as shutting one system down and turning the new one on. There are multiple steps to complete and resources to support needs through this period, at go-live, and beyond here.

Training: Workday Financials Training began this month and will continue up to and after Workday Financials goes live on July 1. Instructor-led training via Zoom, as well as web-based training, which can be taken at a user's own pace. The training calendar and resources are available here.

FST Fridays: View recordings and slides from these role-based day-in-the-life previews of specific topics. Access materials on Foundation Data Model; Procurement; and transactions that all employees can execute in Workday, including creating expense reports and assigning carts. here.

Workday Financials: A "Day in the Life"
This close to go-live, staff may be trying to envision how they will do their work in Workday as opposed to Oracle. While leaders in schools and units are still working on the nuances of mapping Oracle roles to Workday Financial roles, users can get a sneak peek by taking a look at FST's "Day in the Life" here.
